Central Board Recommends Holiday if Grizzlies Beat MSC

Central Board decided yesterday to recommend to President H. K. Newburn that students be given a "victory holiday" if the Grizzlies are successful in their clash with MSC Nov. 5.

The board will recommend that the Monday following the game be a holiday for all schools and departments.

The board also approved a request of $560 for the Hockey Club to buy equipment. Members agreed that although the club receives no support from athletic fees, they still represent the school. The club has several games scheduled this year.

A by-law change to put "M" Book Committee under the responsibility of Publications Board was adopted. The committee will be composed of a chairman and students appointed by Central Board. Their job will be supervising publication and distribution of the freshman "M" Book.

ASMSU president Paul Ulrich recommended the following for the Model U.N. Selection Committee: Paul Miller, chairman; Buzz Romstad, Ron Long, Arash Monjabez and Albert Stillson, faculty advisor.

Central Board approved the appointment of Gary Guest as the other assistant photographer for the Sentinel. Mike Davidson was accepted as Kalmin photographer.

A proposal was made to have the city secure a stop sign or light on the corner of Arthur and University Avenues. Heavy traffic and the pedestrian problem were cited as serious. Central Board members Dave Morris, Sharon Dodge, Jim Johnson and John Datsopoulos were delegated to meet with city council on the problem.

The Board endorsed a Commencement Committee proposal. The proposal calls for setting the Wednesday before final exam week (spring quarter) as the date for faculty members to turn in seniors' grades.

The Rifle team's request for $232.50 to be used for equipment was accepted by the board.

The Board voted to underwrite $50 for the Masquer's trip to the Rocky Mountain Theater conference Oct. 29.

Members also voted to adopt a by-law change authorizing a recorder for J-Council. The position will pay $15 a month.

Jerry Robbins was approved as the fifth member of the Intramural Sports Board.

'King's Men' To Be Staged November 3

The MSU production of "All the King's Men" will be staged in Bozeman at the MSC theater Saturday, Firman H. Brown, chairman of the drama department, said today.

The play, a major off-Broadway attraction in New York last year, will open in Missoula Nov. 3.

Members of the company who will make the trip are Brown, technical director Richard H. James Jr., Ray Stewart, Jerry Hassinger, Larry Leondorf, Alan J. Naslund.

James Baker, Richard Stephenson, James Polk, Elaine Blethen, Katy VanAelstyn, James Morrow, Kirk Buhls, Dennis Craig, Desiree Collette, Shirley Cole and Stewart Miller.

Smith Announces Enrollment Gain

MSU has a total of 3,757 students enrolled for fall quarter according to Leo Smith, registrar. This is an increase of four per cent over last year's registration of 3,615.

This is an 881 gain over the 1957 fall registration, and an increase of 1,131 students since fall 1954.

Men outnumber women 2,641 to 1,116.

FRESHMEN IN POLLS TODAY FOR PRIMARY BALLOTING

Students with 30 credits or less are voting today in the primary election to select freshman delegates to Central Board.

Spurs and Bear Paws are in charge of four ballot boxes at the head of the stairway in the Yellowstone Room at the Lodge.

Six candidates will be elected, according to election chairman Ed Whitelaw. They are: Joe Daley, Tom Lehrkind, Ann Minster, Dennis R. Lahr, Bob Mueller, Roy Nicolet, Tinsley Palmer, Roger T. Riedinger, Casey Sparrow, Dale Swant, Bruce Vasser, Wilbur H. Wood.

The general election will be Nov. 3 when students will vote for three Central Board delegates, Whitelaw said.

Growlers Plan Card Section

Jim Erickson, president of the Grizzly Growlers, says the club is going to show the Bozeman Bobcat-Grizzly game, Nov. 5. The MSU has.

The Growlers are organizing a giant card section for the Bobcat-Grizzly game, Nov. 5. The first plan called for 100 people, but 400 positions are now scheduled for card flashers.

Grizzly Growlers meet this afternoon at 4:30 in the Silver Bow Room of the Lodge to discuss plans, make cards and figure out designs to be shown at the game. Freshmen are invited to attend.

Castle to Address Montana Forum

Gordon Castle, professor of zoology and director of the biological station, will speak to Montana Forum Friday on the Western Interstate Commission for Higher Education, according to Carol Cooper, chairman.

Warden Floyd Powell of the Montana State Prison at Deer Lodge will discuss the prison as related to the forthcoming bond issue on Nov. 4, Miss Cooper said. On Nov. 10, Maxine Scott will lead a continued discussion on the prison.

Vernon Sletten, professor of education, will discuss University admission policies on Nov. 18. Montana Forum meets Friday noon in Territorial Rooms 1 and 2. All are welcome, Miss Cooper said.

MEA Convention Underway; Five Noted Visitors to Speak

A United States Senator, two noted educators, a newspaper columnist and the president-elect of the National Education Association will speak before sessions of the Montana Education Association convention here today and tomorrow.

They are Sen. Mike Mansfield, Hubert N. Alaya of Princeton University, George Z. F. Bereday of Columbia University, Richard L. Evans and Ewald Turner, NEA president.

Registration for the convention started last night at the Florence Hotel and continued this morning at the Field House. An estimated 1,600 persons are expected to attend.

Featured at the first general session this morning was Hubert A. Alaya, professor of chemistry at Princeton University. Mr. Alaya has been visiting professor at the University of Hawaii, the University of Mexico and lecturer at the International Palace of Science at the Brussels Exposition.

Ewald Turner, president-elect of the NEA will be featured speaker at the all-convention banquet tonight at the Florence hotel. Linus Carleton, dean of the School of Education, will be master of ceremonies.

Richard L. Evans, producer, writer and "voice" of "Music and the Spoken Word," from Temple Square in Salt Lake City, Utah, will speak at the second general session tomorrow morning at 9 in the University Theater.

George Z. R. Bereday, professor of comparative education at Teachers College, Columbia University will speak at the third general session tomorrow afternoon at 1:30. Mr. Bereday came to Columbia in 1955. This afternoon at 4:30 Herbert D. Seiter, acting director of the University TV-Studio, will direct a live TV demonstration showing potentialities of TV teaching techniques. Students will handle all equipment during the demonstration, Seiter said.

Following the demonstration Erling Jorgensen, director of the Montana Educational Television Project and chairman of the state ETV committee, will speak on developments in television teaching on the West Coast.

Senator Mike Mansfield will speak to a special social studies section in the University Theater at 10:30 Friday morning.

News Around the Globe

Integration Leader Sentenced To Jail for Sit-In Participation

DECATUR, Ga. (AP)—Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., Negro integration leader, was denied freedom yesterday from a four-month prison term imposed as an indirect result of sit-in demonstrations in nearby Atlanta.

The denial came in a court session that was delayed temporarily by an anonymous telephone threats to bomb the courtroom. More than 100 white and Negro spectators were evacuated from the court, and the hearing was transferred to another room as a precaution against possible violence.

Probation of part of the term which King received on a traffic charge was revoked because King allegedly violated the state's new antitrespass law by taking part in demonstrations last week.

AMERICAN LEAGUE EXPANDS

NEW YORK (AP)—The American League Wednesday voted to expand to Los Angeles and Minneapolis-St. Paul in 1961, beating the National League to the punch. Calvin Griffith was given permission to move his Washington franchise to Minneapolis-St. Paul but new owners will step in to operate a club in Washington.

Names of the new owners in Washington and Los Angeles will be named within three weeks.

REVOLUTION IN SALVADOR

SAN SALVADOR (AP)—President Jose Maria Lemus was overthrown today in a military coup. A combined civilian-military junta has taken power.

Lemus went to Guatemala accompanied by the secretary-general of the presidency, Maj. Arolo Rubio Melhado.

The capital and the country are reported calm.

NEWSWOMAN CONVICTED

DENVER (AP)—The Colorado Supreme Court today convicted

Mrs. Vi Murhpy, 35, a reporter for the Colorado Springs Gazette-Telegraph, of contempt of court for refusing to reveal a news source and sentenced her to 30 days in jail.

She was given a 10-day stay of sentence at the request of her attorney, who said one of her four children is entering a hospital Thursday for surgery for a suspected malignancy.

U.S. FOOD PLAN APPROVED

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The U.N. Economic Committee unanimously adopted Wednesday night a U.S.-sponsored plan for distributing surplus food to needy countries. The plan will be considered by a special session of the General Assembly Thursday.

The plan's sponsors accepted a series of amendments mainly designed to assure food-exporting countries that the proposal would not affect their markets.

'K' DENIES BERLIN BLOCKADE

MOSCOW (AP)—Premier Khrushchev has told West German Ambassador Hans Kroll the Soviet Union has no intention of blocking West Berlin and any charges that it does plan a blockade are slanders, diplomatic sources report.

But the sources said Khrushchev emphasized that the Soviet Union is as determined as ever to end the occupation status of Berlin.

USSR STATISTICS PROVE . . . ?

MOSCOW (AP)—A Soviet economist declared today the Soviet Union's industrial production will exceed that of the United States in 1967. He estimated present Soviet production at three-fifths that of the United States.

The calculations that he announced were provided by the U.S.S.R. Central Statistical Board.

The Great Race

Nearly every campus election or poll results in a few dissenters yelling foul play, corruption, graft, the ballot box was stuffed and votes not properly counted.

We hope this does not happen during the freshman election today or the Kaimin poll Friday.

Already the poll, designed to determine student opinion on the general election, has aroused intense interest. Several students have called the Kaimin to say this poll may have widespread affect on state, county and town politics and it should be carefully conducted.

The voting will be supervised by the Bearpaws from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. in the same manner as student elections with one polling place at the Lodge.

Jerry Agen, chairman of public relations committee, suggested spokesmen from the Young Republicans and Young Democrats be on hand throughout the voting. The ballots will be tallied immediately after voting ends and anyone may attend this session. The ballots will be recounted if necessary.

The main reason for the poll is to give MSU students, many of whom are under 21 or from foreign countries, a chance to express what they think. Then we can compare this with the election returns on Nov. 8.

Meetingitis

Central Board should be complimented for curing the age-old problem of having members show up for weekly meetings. Last year the favorite question started nearly every meeting, do we have a quorum yet?

We would like to suggest, however, that meetings start on time and be shortened as much as possible without interfering with reports and discussion on motions. MSU seems to enjoy meetingitis for some reason.

None of the Central Board meetings have gotten down to business until 4:30 p.m., a half hour after schedule. Then continuous gabbing garbles minor points of business which should only take a moment to discuss.

One faculty member, obviously desiring to head home after a full day's work, appeared to be dozing as the meeting passed the hour and a half mark. Delegates became restless. A few had to leave to attend other business.

The open-minded approach Central Board has taken toward discussing important issues is commendable. But the meetings might be a great deal more effective and business-like if they were shortened at least half an hour.

First Violation

The first violation of the car ban for freshmen occurred this weekend and the student had his enrollment cancelled for fall quarter.

The student apparently borrowed his brother's car without permission for a date. The car broke down and he returned to the campus late.

Andrew Cogswell, dean of students, said the student will undoubtedly return to the University next quarter. We presume he will be a little wiser for the experience.

Wherefore Art Thou?

One of the larger functions of the year, the Foresters Ball, may possibly be minus its queen of hearts, as usual.

Bertha is gone. She did not appear at the Foresters Convocation last night for the third time in three years.

Several weeks ago, the foresters initiated their freshmen and assigned them to a "Keep Bertha" committee. Fifteen minutes later she disappeared. While bright-faced foresters were climbing Mt. Sentinel, the mangy moose was climbing out of a window in Cook Hall. Was there an intelligence leak within the ranks?

The chagrined freshmen foresters have not been able to locate their sweetheart. They have followed numerous clues, including postcards from many points between Missoula and Arizona, but Bertha has not been found.

And again, over the reaches of the campus, there echoes one lonely cry, "Where's Bertha?"

Word of the Week

The newly constituted Public Exercises Committee, which includes what had formerly been the Visiting Lecturers Committee, would like to make its plans and purposes clear to the students. The aim of the 13 student members and 7 faculty members of this committee is to bring to this campus noted speakers.

Fortunately our present circumstances make it possible for us to invite and obtain "big names." The Public Exercises Committee has been given a generous budget with which to work. Funds come from the students, from the University itself and from the Alumni Office. Moreover, MSU is a member of the Northwest Colleges concerts and Lectures Association, whose headquarters are at the University of Washington. This organization includes nine Northwestern universities. Whenever possible these nine units share speakers in order to reduce expenses and to help one another in an area where lecture arrangements present difficulties.

Since the Public Exercises Committee is just beginning its work, its plans are in the making. But there are very interesting possibilities. Dr. Russell Kirk, one of the foremost authorities in the country on the "conservative mind" will speak here on Nov. 2. His topic is "Nixon-Goldwater—The Conservative Mind." To offer a good balance Arthur Schlesinger Jr., who represents the "democratic" mind, will be visiting the campus Dec. 9. Alan Watts, the noted authority on Zen-Buddhism, will be here in May.

The Committee is also considering the possibility of political speakers, provided that such speakers can be persuaded to address issues. Senator Barry Goldwater has been invited and may be able to come some time next year. Senator Mike Mansfield will be speaking under the auspices of the Committee on Nov. 4 or 7.

Further, the committee is considering lecturers who will address themselves to certain topics of national interest.

One such person is Ernest van den Haag, of the New School of Social Research in New York. He is the co-author of the Fabric of Society. But most of all he is known for his formulation of the problem of "Mass Culture." There is also the possibility of a noted art critic who would discuss specific works of art in an art show, as well as the situation for art in our day. We are also in the process of contacting Al Capp and Ernest Hemingway to see if it would be possible for them to visit MSU.

Geography Staff Gains Professor

The latest addition to the geography staff is Axel Hansen, assistant professor. He replaced Dr. Jacquelyn Beyer, who is now teaching at the University of Cape-town in the Union of South Africa.

Hansen received his B.S. and M.S. degrees from the University of Wisconsin. For the past two years he has been working toward the Ph.D. at the University of Iowa.

He has taught at Wisconsin State College and Iowa State Teachers College.

Wind Sprints By G. T. Guenin

The Brigham Young University coaching staff must have watched their MSU-BYU film with the room lights on.

Their complaint of "dirty" football was grossly one-sided. This reporter saw the MSU film yesterday, at a slowed speed, and it was clear that BYU players were also guilty of misconduct.

The Montana film shows three outstanding examples of unsportsmanlike conduct on the part of BYU players. Two of the rules infractions are identical to those charged against Montana, using the elbows in an illegal manner.

The unfortunate fact remains that players on both teams used tactics that do not belong in a football game, although the BYU athletic department seems confused on the number of times these tactics showed up in the game.

A wire service story quoted Tally Stevens, BYU coach, yesterday as saying he saw nine infractions in the film. A letter from Edwin R. Kimball, BYU athletic director, to the University said six infractions were seen. This reporter saw three definite infractions by each team on the Montana film.

The final decision on the subject will be made by the Skyline Commissioner, Paul W. Brechler.

In a telephone interview yesterday with Brechler, he said he had received a letter from BYU and he considered it to be a formal protest.

The Commissioner said he would have to study the films, talk with game officials and with both athletic directors before action, if any, would be taken.

It is possible that the 'action' from the commissioner's office will be nothing more than a stern warning to the players.

That could be all that is needed.

Coach Stevens may be right in calling it "dirty" football, but when 22 men meet in football tempers are going to control common sense a few times during the game.

Players' Fathers To Be Honored

Fathers of Grizzly football players will be honored at the Bobcat-Grizzly game Saturday, Denis Adams, Traditions Board chairman announced yesterday.

They will sit behind the Grizzly team and will be introduced during half time. Each father will wear his son's number on his back.

To boost spirit for the event, a paper will be published, edited by Wayne Finney. The paper will include a statement by Paul Ulrich, ASMSU president, and a schedule of the weekend events.

Pam Lowe is in charge of the victory signs that will decorate the campus and stadium and a special cheering section is also being organized by Ellen Ann Thorwardson.

Missoula Cubs To Face BYU

The Cub football team will travel to Provo, Utah, next week to battle BYU's freshman team.

In the encounter the Cubs will have a chance to even the score for last year's 19 to 6 loss.

Freshman Coach Hal Sherbeck will take a traveling team of 29 to the Nov. 4 encounter.

This week Sherbeck said he was pleased with Cub defensive play in last week's 12 to 6 loss to the MSC frosh, but felt they need more offensive practice.

"The ends and defensive back-field need a lot of practice, but our interior line held up very well," Sherbeck said. "The running backs also did a good job in the second half against the MSC frosh."

MSC Freshmen To Face Powell

BOZEMAN (AP) — The Montana State freshman football team seeks its second victory of the season Friday afternoon against Northwest Community College of Powell, Wyo. Game time is 1:30 p.m.

In their first game of the season last week, the Bobkittens defeated the Montana University Cubs, 12-6.

Movies of the MSU-BYU game will be shown in Music 105 tonight at 7. Milt Schwenk, Grizzly line coach will narrate the film.

Incurable Disease Strikes

By JUDITH ZAESKE

Campaign fever, a contagious disease spread by the Election Bug, has hit the Grizzly campus in full force.

Experts say there is no treatment or cure. The bug will probably die around Nov. 8.

Two EBB (Election Bug Bitten) ROTC cadets were walking along University Avenue, discussing presidential candidates. The first said he was pro-Kennedy because of Mr. Kennedy's strong defense policy.

"If Kennedy gets in," the second retorted, "we'll need a strong defense policy."

One EBB soul commented over a cup of coffee, "The Republicans are saying, 'We got you into this mess, let us get you out.'"

In Turner Hall, an ardent EBB Democrat ran into a room with a poster pen in her hand and lunged at a huge poster of Mr. Nixon hanging on the wall. Forcibly restrained and questioned by the room's inhabitants, she said, "I decided he'd look better with spots in his eyes."

EBB philosopher came up with, "Come Nov. 9, Kennedy will feel as if it's midnight on Christmas Eve, and Santa Claus didn't come."

Three pro-Democrat, EBB roommates insist they are keeping open minds. They do have brochures on Republican candidates in the room. The brochures are used for doormats.

One EBB junior received a card from her father. It said, "Yes, Kennedy will be in the White House in '61 . . . if Nixon invites him."

Then there's the freshman who obviously hasn't caught the Election Bug yet. When the Kaimin appeared with the front page story of Ted Kennedy's speech, he only commented, "Name sounds familiar."

Research Class Takes Sales Poll

A market research class is gathering information on shopping habits of Missoula residents.

The class, taught by Leo L. Knowlton of the business administration faculty, polled Missoula businessmen in the first phase of the survey. Students are now asking consumers questions which businessmen indicated they would like answered.

Knowlton said the students are not engaging in a sales promotion. They are gathering information that may be valuable to both consumers and retailers.
